

Datasheet for

Bencon Wax

Description:

Bencon Wax is a mould wax, that can be applied as a release agent on especially demanding concrete casting. For instance on udspringer, indsatse etc. Can furthermore be applied as a protective agent with storage of other materials, moulding equipment etc.

Operation:

Bencon Wax is delivered ready to use and appliance can be done with a brush or cloth
Bencon Wax can be used on temperatures as low as -15°C, but should be, in consideration to appliance and subsequent demoulding, used above 0°C.

Advantage:

Bencon Wax be applied with advantage on challenging concrete castings.
Low cost in usage

Physical properties:

Appearance : white paste
Flash point : > 100 °C
Density : 0,87